Vitaly Medvedovsky's drawings and paintings speak of departure into the uncertain, and the search for one's roots and homeland. Born in the Ukraine in 1981, Vitaly masterfully stages his alter-ego protagonist in different phases of life, or frozen in time like film stills. At age six, Vitaly Medvedovsky left his home in the Ukraine with his family and immigrated to Israel. At age sixteen, he moved to Canada where he studied painting. Since 2010, he shares his time between Berlin and Tübingen. His travels to the new world can be traced in his paintings, revealing cultural imprints collected like baggage on his journey. One cannot measure what will remain of this history. In this, Vitaly shares the fate of many.

Leaves, 2017, oil on canvas. 110 x 210 cm
